Country Style, Country Chefs is a beautiful collection of recipes and stories from Country Style magazine which features some of Australia's most celebrated and well-loved country chefs, including Maggie Beer, Stefano Manfredi, Dietmar Sawyere and Steven Snow.

Stunning location photography captures the beauty and diversity of the Australian countryside and the recipes reflect the goodness and honesty of country cooking, especially its resonance with time and place. While the chefs' styles and cuisines as are as varied as their locations, they share a common passion for seasonality, locally sourced ingredients, foraging for wild food and kitchen gardening.

There are over 90 recipes highlighting the very best of fresh, seasonal produce – from Tom Moore's Stinging Nettle Gnocchi and Maggie Beer's Quince and Prune Pastry to Annie Smithers' Braised Lamb Shoulder and Steven Snow's Seafood Sambal.

Edited by Victoria Carey, Country Style magazine has been celebrating the diversity of modern country living since its launch in 1989 and features inspiring articles on food, gardening, travel, interior design, fashion and the arts, as well as topical rural issues and small business news.
